3 Read the text on page 26 of the Emotionary and write T (true) or F (false) next to the sentences below.

- F Happiness is the same for everyone.
- T Almost any activity can make you happy.
- T When you are happy, you feel satisfied with yourself.
- F Happiness has to do with other people, not with yourself.

Now correct the false sentences.

Happiness is different for everyone.
Happiness has to do with ourselves.

4 Underline the words which mean the same as skill.

- talent
- attitude
- ability
- possibility
- aptitude

5 Now write three sentences using the words you chose in Activity 4.

Sample answer:

My sister has a great talent for acting.

Your ability to get out of trouble is amazing!

I haven’t got much aptitude for music, but my mum makes me have piano lessons.
6 Complete the text with words from the satisfaction family.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>satisfaction &gt;</th>
<th>to satisfy</th>
<th>satisfying</th>
<th>satisfactory</th>
<th>satisfied</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

- I find it very satisfying when I complete a difficult puzzle.
- I don’t think the last story I wrote was my best, but it was satisfactory.
- My sister felt very satisfied when she solved a difficult maths problem.
- Baking a nice cake satisfies us.

7 Put the letters in order to make a word which means the opposite of happiness.

```
U H E S S N A P P I N
UNHAPPINESS
```

8 What skills have you got? Write down six of them.
