Yesterday we went sailing with my Uncle Jim. My uncle has had a motorboat for years. We stopped the boat in a little cove to swim and, when my uncle tried to start the engine again, he couldn’t. There was something wrong! I got worried straight away and didn’t know what to do. I started jumping up and down to try and attract attention but that rocked the boat, so I stopped. My uncle, on the other hand, was totally calm. He picked up his binoculars and scanned the horizon. Then he sent up a flare and, within minutes, another boat came to help us.
