Read what happened to Evie and answer the questions below.

On Monday our music class gave a concert for our parents. I played the violin. I was supposed to sit in the first row, but I slipped into the back one when we were all getting into our places. I didn’t want anyone to see me. I didn’t feel at ease on stage and I was too hot. I wasn’t getting into the music at all, and I was struggling to follow the score. Then my fingers stiffened and I couldn’t play properly. In the end, I stopped playing altogether and stood silently, holding my violin, until the end of the concert.

How did Evie try to go unnoticed?

Did Evie play well? Why? Why not?

Was Evie comfortable? How can you tell?

Did Evie get stuck? What happened?

What did she do after that?
Read what Chandni and Chris say, then answer the questions.

Chandni

Yesterday I took part in a talent show at school. Everybody had to do something they were good at. I demonstrated my skills with a football: I kept it in the air for two minutes, without it touching the ground even once. Whilst I was backstage I was a bit nervous, but as soon as I saw the audience, I knew I was going to do brilliantly.

Chris

Yesterday my mum and I went to visit my Auntie Irene, who lives in a care home. My auntie gave me some sweets. All my auntie’s friends were talking to me at the same time and asking me questions. They seemed very nice, but I didn’t know what to say. All I wanted to do was get out of there.

Who seems shy?

Do you think you would have felt the same way? Would you like to perform at a talent show?

What do you think you could do to overcome shyness?
Tick all the things you have done when you have felt shy.

- Hid behind my mum or dad.
- Refused to answer questions.
- Run away.
- Started crying.
- Started laughing.

What other things do you do when you feel shy?

Why do you behave like this?

In what situations do you feel shy?

What is it that makes you feel uncomfortable in these situations?
