1 Look carefully at the picture on pages 52 to 53 of the EMOTIONARY and answer the questions.

- How do you think the cat feels? Tick the correct answer.
  - [ ] He’s afraid of the bees.
  - [ ] He’s angry with the bees.
  - [ ] He’s curious about the bees.

- What do you think is going to happen next?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

2 Write what you think the cat might be thinking.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
3 Read the text about hostility on page 52 of the Emotionary and complete the sentences.

- We feel hostile when someone stops us from ____________________________
- When we feel hostile, we tend to ____________________________
- Hostility leads us to ____________________________

4 Write down two ways in which we show hostility.

___________________________________________
___________________________________________

5 To disagree is the opposite of ‘to agree’. Underline the words which form their negatives by adding the prefix dis-. Then write the dis- words below.

- belief
- contented
- wrap
- obedient
- happy
- like
- order
- acceptable
- infect
- normal

___________________________________________
___________________________________________
___________________________________________
Write three sentences that disagree with the three below.

○ Fish is delicious.

○ The best time to be at the beach is in the afternoon.

○ Cycling is healthy and fun.

Match each verb to its meaning.

○ reject  to make someone unhappy or worried

○ attack  to push away (physically or with words)

○ upset  to criticise someone in an aggressive way

Write down two examples of when you have acted in a hostile way towards someone.

○ Why did you act like that?
9 Write down three examples of when someone has disagreed with you.

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

Did you feel hostile on any of these occasions?

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

10 Read the following situation and imagine two different endings: in one, Oscar reacts in a hostile way and, in the other, he doesn’t.

Oscar’s best friend is Elliot. This week Elliot’s cousin, Ben, is staying at his house. Ben is a year older than Oscar and Elliot, and gets on really well with his cousin. When Oscar meets Ben…

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Hostile reaction</th>
<th>Non-hostile reaction</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
11 Write down three things that the cat in the picture on pages 52 to 53 of the EMOTIONARY might say to show his hostility.

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

12 What do you think might happen after that? Write your answer and draw a picture.

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________
The EMOTIONARY worksheets belong to the Say What You Feel series. For more information on the series, further worksheets and other supplementary materials, please go to www.palabrasaladas.com/f/emo_eng.html