1 Look carefully at the picture on pages 60 to 61 of the Emotionary and answer the questions below.

- Who do you think lives in the house in the cloud?

- Why do you think they have chosen to live there?

- What do you think the advantages of living in the house are?

2 Do you like being on your own? If so, when? Try to give at least three examples.
3 Read the text on page 60 of the EMOTIONARY and write T (true) or F (false) next to the sentences.

- ☐ Sometimes it can be useful to be alone.
- ☐ You can feel lonely when you are with other people.
- ☐ To overcome loneliness, it’s important to communicate with people.
- ☐ It can be unpleasant to be alone.

4 Look at the words below and make new words from the adjectives.

- lonely → i + ness = loneliness
- happy → i + ness = __________________________
- __________________________ → i + ness = friendliness
- __________________________ → i + ness = silliness
- smelly → i + ness = __________________________

5 Complete the sentences with words from Activity 4.

- My mum says that the secret of __________________________ is not wanting what you can’t have.
- A lot of old people suffer from __________________________ cause they live on their own.
- I can’t stand the __________________________ at the cheese counter in our supermarket. I always have to hold my nose.
- What I like most about my class is its __________________________. Everyone is really nice to each other.
In the text on page 60 of the Emotionary it says that solitude can be a good thing if you don’t want anyone to bother you. What does bother mean? Tick the correct box.

- [ ] annoy
- [ ] insult
- [ ] hit

Underline the things in the list that bother you. Then add some of your own ideas too.

dogs barking  someone eating noisily  classmates borrowing a pen without asking your permission  friends asking you to help them with their homework  your mum or dad singing in the shower

Complete the crossword with words from the text on page 60 of the Emotionary.

1. when two or more people use something, they...

2. the lack of something

3. not wanted
Complete the table by writing down the advantages and disadvantages of solitude.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Advantages</th>
<th>Disadvantages</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Have you ever felt lonely when you were with other people? If so, when? Write about it here.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Write down two things you prefer to do alone and two things you prefer to do with others.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
Imagine that it is against the law to ever be alone. What wouldn’t you like about this? Write down your answers.

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

12 Write a letter to the person or animal who lives in the house in the picture on pages 60 to 61 of the EMOTIONARY. Ask them questions about their life and tell them about your life. You can add a picture of your house if you like.

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________
Solitude

NOTES

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________

The EMOTIONARY worksheets belong to the Say What You Feel series. For more information on the series, further worksheets and other supplementary materials, please go to www.palabrasaladas.com/f/emo_eng.html