Read the text about pleasure on page 90 of the Emotionary and answer the questions.

- What two emotions make up pleasure?

Satisfaction and delight.

- What is pleasure produced by?

It’s produced by something that we really like.

- What kind of activities do we find pleasure in?

We find pleasure in all sorts of activities: for example, playing with our friends, daydreaming, or looking at beautiful things.

- What do we need to do to feel pleasure?

We need to concentrate.

To appreciate pleasure, we need to concentrate. Complete the sentences with other verbs that end in -ate.

- A teacher’s job is to educate.
- A surgeon’s job is to operate.
- If you say that something is bigger, better or worse than it really is, you exaggerate.
- If you go on to the street to protest, you demonstrate.
The text on page 90 of the Emotionary talks about different activities that we can find pleasure in. Match each activity with its example.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Fantasising</th>
<th>Getting a hug from a member of your family</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Looking at beautiful things</td>
<td>Playing snakes and ladders with your grandma</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Solving problems</td>
<td>Studying the pictures in the Emotionary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Playing</td>
<td>Imagining what life on Mars would be like</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Feeling loved</td>
<td>Working out how to put a table together</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Now match each activity with the kind of pleasure it belongs to.

<table>
